All basic disclosure certificates are issued under section 112 of the Police Act 1997. A certificate either contains information about every conviction of an applicant or states that there is no such conviction. Conviction takes its meaning from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, but it does not include any spent conviction. The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 sets out rehabilitation periods after which convictions may become spent; different rehabilitation periods apply in England and Wales and in Scotland.

For an application where the home address of the applicant is in England or Wales, the application has been processed under the version of section 112 of the Police Act 1997 and the rehabilitation periods in section 5 of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 that apply in England and Wales.

For an application where the home address of the applicant is in Scotland or in a country outwith Great Britain, the application has been processed under the version of section 112 of the Police Act 1997 and the rehabilitation periods in section 5 of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 that apply in Scotland.

Convictions

The applicant has no convictions for disclosure.
